

Shop Friendly Uptown Wadesboro!

In the rolling hills of the North Carolina heartland lies the historic small town of Wadesboro. With about 7,000 people, small town warmth and friendliness are a way of life here.

Wadesboro's downtown business district, known as Uptown Wadesboro, has a charming variety of retail shops, restaurants and places to stay. Gift shops with handcrafted items, local North Carolina pottery and handmade jewelry as well as antique stores, florist shops, old-fashioned hardware stores, a local diner, a bakery, and a Bed & Breakfast can all be found in Uptown Wadesboro.

An Historic Setting for Today's Shopper

The Uptown Wadesboro business district boasts architecture reminiscent of its long history as a cotton and textile town when Wadesboro was the center of shopping, entertainment and dining for all of Anson County. Years ago, young and old traveled into Wadesboro from the surrounding countryside to visit the many shops that lined the Uptown streets. A variety of businesses including women's dress shops, dry goods stores, hardware stores, soda fountains, dime stores, a tea room, a bowling alley and a movie theatre, offered such an assortment of shopping that no one left the county. That shopping district is still alive and offers visitors and residents modern day shopping in an historic setting.

The Town of Wadesboro is proud to be a Main Street town in the North Carolina Main Street Program since 1984. Wadesboro's business district has been listed on the National Register of Historic Places since 1999.
